New Home of Knights of Columbus Is Formally Taken Over.

Grand Gathering of Clergy and Laymen Held at New Haven.

Week of Business and Social Functions Combined in Old Town.

CARDINAL GIBBONS WAS PRESENT

The grandest gathering of distinguished Catholics ever seen in New England took place this week when the Knights of Columbus held their annual convention at New Haven, Conn. Distinguished churchmen as well as laymen were in the gathering and the central figure was his Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. The historic old town put on gala attire in honor of the visitors and there never was an hour that something was not doing to show the guests a good time.

The advance guard arrived on Sunday. Every train brought Knights from some quarter and committees were on hand to meet every train. Monday the great influx of visitors began and before nightfall 15,000 Knights had invaded the town. The entire day was given over to receptions and social affairs. The convention proper opened on Tuesday, when an all-day business session was held. In the evening a grand ball was given at the Second Regiment armory. Thousands of Knights and their ladies made the scene a brilliant one.

Cardinal Gibbons arrived on Monday morning and was given a royal welcome by the Knights, who escorted him to the City Hall, where Mayor Studley delivered the formal address of welcome. The Cardinal replied in a befitting manner and complimented the past work of the order he had come to honor. His Eminence presided at the dedicatory ceremonies at the new national hall on Wednesday afternoon. Many other distinguished churchmen took part in this function. Morgan J. O'Brien, of the New York judiciary, delivered the oration, which was a masterpiece of diction and eloquence. The other speakers were Judge Victor Dowling, of New York, and the Hon. William B. Green, of Indiana. At least 50,000 visitors witnessed the dedicatory ceremonies, but not one-fourth of that number were within hearing distance of the addresses.

In the evening a banquet was held and toasts were responded to by Senators Carter, of Montana, and Geary, of Oregon; Joseph Mercier, of Montreal; B. F. Friaby, of Mexico City, and the Hon. George Monaghan, of Detroit, all members of the order.

The convention closed Friday with an exemplification of the fourth degree. The various chairs were occupied by some of the most distinguished State Deputies in the country. In the afternoon a parade of the fourth degree members was held. Connecticut, Massachusetts, Providence, New York and Philadelphia were largely represented in the parade.

The new building, erected at a cost of $200,000, has the most advantageous situation in New Haven. It has a frontage of sixty-one feet and is 100 feet deep. Steel and stone were used in its construction and it is regarded as thoroughly fire-proof. It is four stories high. The lower floors will be used as stores. Twenty modernly equipped office rooms, a large council chamber and four connected ante-rooms will occupy the second floor. The offices are so constructed and so large that some of them may be leased to local councils for permanent club quarters. The third floor will not be occupied for the present. The entire fourth floor will be used by the Supreme officers and their clerks. If the order continues to grow as rapidly as in the past five years it will soon become necessary to use the third floor also.

Kentucky Knights were represented at the national gathering by Messrs. James J. Fitzgerald, Robert A. Watson and P. H. Callahan, all of Louisville. Like good Catholics, the convention was opened with a Pontifical mass at St. John's church. Cardinal Gibbons occupied a throne in the sanctuary and the Right Rev. Bishop Conaty, of Los Angeles, preached the sermon.

The report of National Secretary Daniel Colwell showed an income of $722,900 for the year, which with the balance from last year brought the total income to $1,020,027. The disbursements were $406,375, leaving a balance of $1,609,652.

PARTICULAR COUNCIL.

The Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will hold its regular meeting at Francis Hall, in the basement of the Cathedral, on Monday night. Matters of great importance are to be discussed and President Campbell desires a full attendance of the members.

CHILD BADLY HURT.

James Kilkelly, the three-year-old son of James J. Kilkelly, of 1651 Prentice street, was knocked down and seriously injured by a milk wagon at Eighteenth and Prentice streets. The little fellow and his five-year-old sister Leona were on an errand from home, and in crossing Prentice street a milk wagon was driven rapidly around the corner. The boy was knocked down and two wheels passed over his abdomen, but the little girl escaped injury. The driver of the wagon picked the injured child up, but the little fellow was unable to stand. He was removed to his home, where medical attention was summoned. While not out of danger his condition has improved perceptibly.

HARD WORK.

Mackin's Members Hustling For Success at Their Outing.

The Picnic Committee of Mackin Council met Saturday night and the various sub-committees reported progress. The tickets are being disposed of so rapidly that it may become necessary to print an additional 10,000. Barney J. Flynn was the first member to dispose of all his tickets and turn in the cash. He was given a Y. M. I. button offered for those who disposed of a certain number of tickets. Mr. Flynn took another bunch of tickets and will work to secure a watch chain.

Mal Shaghneshy, who represents the council in the South End, stated that the Limerick Socials had decided to attend the outing at Fontaine Ferry Park, June 21, in a body. Each of the committees made favorable reports on the progress of work.

HUSTLING MEETING.

Division 3 Inaugurates Campaign to Secure New Members.

A hustling business meeting of Division 3, A. O. H., was held Monday night. President Welsh kept things moving in rapid-fire order and all were pleased with the ceremony with which business was dispatched. The attendance was good, considering the forbidding weather conditions, and five new members were elected. They will be presented for obligation at the next meeting. The election of delegates and alternates was confirmed, tickets for the annual outing were distributed among those present, and communications were read by Secretary Coleman.

It was determined to inaugurate a movement for increasing the membership and Martin Sheehan, D. J. Coleman and George J. Butler were appointed members of a campaign committee to undertake the work. Capt. Tom Riley and President John Mulloy were visitors from Division I, and the former made a nice talk for the annual outing and the benefits the order should derive therefrom. National Director Butler followed in an excellent address, advocating unity and harmony in all Hibernian undertakings. Secretary Dan Dougherty's announcement that the receipts of the evening amounted to $115 and that there was an present $1,051 in the treasury created much good feeling.

GOD AND COUNTRY

Subject of Address Delivered Before Mackin Council Tuesday.

The intellectual features of Mackin Council's meeting Tuesday night showed that interest in this class of work was increasing. George J. Leutz advocated the organization of a choir as an adjunct to the organization. He pointed out what the Social Club had done and reasoned that among 500 members at least 10 per cent. ought to possess voices capable of development. If a choir was formed it would prove an agreeable feature and might eventually prove a source of revenue. On his motion Sam Robertson, Leslie Quinkert and Prof. Felisi were appointed to organize the choir.

Clarence Zook made the address of the evening, an epitome of Catholicity in the United States. He handled his subject intelligently and it was well received. In his opening remarks Mr. Zook iterated an axiom: "You can not love a thing you do not know." From this he showed that unless Catholics were thoroughly conversant with the history of their Church and country they could not have the proper reverence for them. He dwelt on the motto of the order, "For God, for country." Next he took up the different enterprises of Mackin; how it had developed the brain, muscle and social propensities, but until lately had neglected the intellectual benefits.

Mr. Zook next presented American history and told about the settlement at Jamestown, Va., in 1607, the first settlement of English speaking people in what is now the United States. The event will be duly celebrated with an exposition at Jamestown, to be opened May 15 next year. The navies and troops of the world will be represented, but the United States will make a showing as good as any. The speaker talked along this line and showed how Catholics had always taken a prominent part in the history of our country.

THIS SOUNDS WELL.

Mayor McClellan, of New York, will sail for Europe on June 26 and will be gone two months. During the interim a gentleman with the euphonious name of Patrick McGowan will be Mayor pro tem. of the great American metropolis.

WELCOME!

Kentucky Bids Her Wandering Sons and Daughters Return.

Feasts and Functions Arranged For Home Coming Week.

Pleasant Plans Prepared For Visitors From Many States.

FEATURES OF THE NEXT WEEK

Tomorrow will be the first day of "home coming week," and a great week it promises to be, not only for Louisville but for all Kentucky. Our exiled brethren 60,000 strong are expected to return for the feast prepared for them, not necessarily like the prodigal son, but just the same the fatted calf will be killed for the weary wanderers. From the Big Sandy to the Mississippi and from the Ohio to the Cumberland the people will rise in glad acclaim to sing a welcome home. This State boasts 119 counties, many of them larger than this (Jefferson) county. Every one of these counties has lost several sons and daughters to other States. It is generally agreed that 600,000 sons have wandered from Kentucky into other fields of action. Conservative estimates make it appear that 10 per cent., or 60,000, will be here for the "home coming." What a week it will be! The laborer will lay aside his muck rake and the editor will drop his pen to show the visitors over the city. But Louisville will not be the whole show. The Kentucky home-comers will visit the mountain counties, the Bluegrass, Beargrass, Pennyroyal and Purchase. Catholic, Protestant and Jew will be given a hearty handshake in their old homes.

Of course the main interest will center around Louisville. It is here that the public celebrations will be held. The only exception will be the laying of the cornerstone of the new Capitol, which will take place at Frankfort on Saturday. Many distinguished Kentuckians and former Kentuckians will attend that celebration.

It is almost superfluous to reiterate that the new armory, at Sixth and Walnut streets, will be the general headquarters for information as well as entertainment. The entire city will be decorated by day and illuminated by night. The first formal function will be held at the armory on Wednesday. The Hon. Henry Watterson will deliver the address of welcome. He will be followed by Gov. Beckham and Mayor Paul C. Barth. The Hon. David R. Francis, of St. Louis, will respond in behalf of the visitors. In the afternoon there will be a grand floral parade and a concert by the Philharmonic Society at night.

Thursday will usher in a series of other interesting events. The principle public feature will be the unveiling of the monument to Stephen Collins Foster, who wrote the song dear to us all, "My Old Kentucky Home." On this occasion the Hon. Sidney P. Redding, of Little Rock, will deliver the principal address and a chorus of a thousand school children will sing Foster's celebrated song.

On Friday the statue of Daniel Boone will be unveiled at Cherokee Park and on Saturday Louisville and Frankfort will divide the honors in entertaining the guests. Sunday will be the last day of the "home coming" festivities, but all the guests will be welcome to stay as long as they desire.

The Catholic Knights of America will have headquarters at the Catholic Woman's Club, Walnut street, near Fourth, during the week, and all visiting members of the order will be welcome. The daily papers, the current magazines and other excellent literature will be on hand.

The Kentucky Irish American will welcome all its friends and patrons who call during the week, whether they are from Kentucky or some other State. With Thomas Davis we can say: "Come in the evening or come in the morning. Come when you're looked for or come without warning. Kisses and welcome you'll find here before you, And the offerer you come here the more we'll adore you."

SARTO INITIATES.

Visitors From Louisville and Other Towns Given Welcome.

Sarto Council, Y. M. I., of Owensboro, held an initiation last Sunday and eighteen candidates received the three degrees. Among the distinguished visitors present were Supreme Trustee J. J. Barry, of New Haven; Grand Vice President Albert F. Martin, Grand Secretary and Treasurer Edwin C. Dawson and Grand Director Joseph L. Lenihan. The exemplification of the ritual given by the degree team was excellent. Fred W. Arnold was at the helm and saw that everything moved with the precision of clockwork, while Lavaga Clemens, an instructor, played his part in a superior manner. The ceremonies lasted from 2:30 o'clock until 6:30. On leaving Dawson Hall, where the initiatory exercises were held, the members of the council accompanied by the visitors from Knottsville and Louisville, marched to Sarto Council club rooms, where an elegant banquet was served. Lavaga Clemens acquitted himself admirably as toastmaster and won many encomiums for his wit and forethought.

The banquet was prepared and served by the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Sarto Council and a more charming aggregation of feminine beauty could not be found in Kentucky. The young ladies who are members of the dramatic club were seated at a table with the young men who also affiliate with the club. Toastmaster Clemens and each of the speakers paid tribute to the grace and beauty of the fair hostesses.

Grand Vice President Martin, of Louisville, complimented Sarto Council on its good work and said that after seeing such a gathering of lovely girls he did not blame Gov. Beckham for going to Owensboro for a wife.

President Lenihan, of Satolli Council, was the second speaker. He told of a recent visit to Gethsemane Abbey, where he was so much impressed that he had serious thoughts of entering there for life. Now that he had seen Owensboro and its girls he wanted to make his home in that city. Edwin C. Dawson and John J. Barry also made addresses, and the latter told the girls he still wanted some one to help him edit the New Haven Echo. Robert Gore, of Sarto Council, recited several poems and the banquet closed with the Y. M. I. hymn, all joining in the chorus.

SILVER JUBILEE.

Rev. Father Charles Curran Is Twenty-Five Years a Priest.

The Rev. Father Charles Curran, pastor of Holy Trinity church, New Albany, will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination next Monday. He will officiate at the solemn high mass, while the Right Rev. Bishop Denis O'Donoghue, D. D., of Indianapolis, and many clergy of the diocese will be present at the ceremonies.

Father Curran was born in New York State forty-nine years ago, but when quite a young man he removed to Indiana. He entered St. Melard's abbey and studied for the priesthood. There he was ordained by the Right Rev. Bishop Charvat June 11, 1881. He labored on several missions in Southern Indiana for a short time and was then appointed rector of Holy Trinity church to succeed the late Father Kelly of blessed memory. Since assuming charge of that parish he has become universally popular and his silver jubilee will be well attended.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Catherine McCormack, aged fifty-five years, died suddenly Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Butler, 819 Cawthon street. She was a native of Ireland, but had spent the greater part of her life in this city. Her funeral took place from St. Louis Bertrand's church Wednesday morning.

J. D. McDaniel, the photographer, and his family have the sympathy of the entire community on account of the death of his daughter, Miss Lonie G. McDaniel, a young lady of many charming graces. She was to have graduated from the High School next week and would have become a bride in the latter part of this month.

Martin J. Quinlan, aged forty-four years and wellknown throughout the city, died Tuesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Quinlan, 2320 West Chestnut street. The funeral took place from St. Charles Borromeo church Thursday, Rev. Father Raffo conducting the solemn ceremonies, which were attended by a large circle of sorrowing friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Katie R. Smith, aged twenty-two years, died at her home, 1615 West Main street, Monday morning. The deceased had suffered from a complication of ailments for three months and her death was not unexpected. Her husband, Frank Smith, a tinner in the employ of the L. & N. Railroad Company, survives her. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning. Prior to her marriage the deceased was Miss Katie Savage and was very popular in the East End.

The entire community was shocked when it became known that Miss Nell A. Lincoln died at her home, 1611 Bank street, on Monday morning. She had been for years a member of St. Patrick's church choir and took an active interest in all church and charitable work. During the past fifteen years Miss Lincoln had been a clerk in the department store of John C. Lewis & Co. She had an acquaintance that extended all over the city and was highly esteemed by all. Her mother, Mrs. Susan Lincoln, two brothers and three sisters survive. Death resulted from rheumatism, which attacked the heart, after an illness of eight weeks. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning.

FEDERATION.

The Jefferson County Federation of Catholic Societies will hold a regular monthly meeting at the Catholic Woman's Club Thursday evening. Matters of importance are to be discussed and a full attendance is desired.

GRAND FEAST.

The Catholic Church Celebrates Corpus Christi Next Thursday.

Special Day Set Apart to Honor the Body of Our Saviour.

Dominicans Played Prominent Part in Securing Permanency in Feast.

NO LONGER HOLYDAY OF OBLIGATION

Thursday will be the feast of Corpus Christi, no longer a holiday of obligation in this country, but still a day of great devotion, since it is in a special manner dedicated to the body of Christ. From the beginning of time this feast has been celebrated. Under the old law the patriarchs offered figurative sacrifices. In the new law the successors of our Saviour and St. Peter have observed the celebration. The patriarchs shed the blood of a lamb as a sacrifice. Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, was the sacrifice under the new law and continues to be offered daily on our altars. What a transition from a feast to a Man-God, the second person of the Blessed Trinity.

Catholics honor the body of Christ in the holy sacrifice of the mass every day, just as they honor the Trinity by respecting the sign of the cross in all their ceremonies and functions. Yet just as with the Blessed Trinity, Corpus Christi has its own feast.

In the year 1193 A. D. a novice in the Convent of the Hospitaliers of Mount Cornillon, near Liege in Belgium, had a vision in which our Divine Lord and Master made it known to her that He would like a particular day set apart for this feast. Through timidity she kept her secret for thirty years. At last she told her story to a Dominican, the Provincial at Liege, who afterward became Pope Urban IV. The Blessed Juliana died before the feast was decided upon by the church, and it was not until 1264 that the actual celebration was ordained. Pope Urban IV. assigned the feast of Corpus Christi to the Thursday after the octave of Pentecost for two reasons—it is the first Thursday free from the offices of Paschal time and it is becoming to take the day of the week on which our Lord instituted the Eucharist. St. Thomas of Aquin, O. P., often called the Angelic Doctor, received an order to write the office for the Holy Sacrament. He complied with the order and this Catholics hear almost every time of benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given. Who does not remember: "O salutaris hostia!"

Pope Urban died in October, 1264, and little or no attention was paid to his decree until the General Council of Vienne, 1311 A. D. The assembled prelates decided to give the feast of Corpus Christi all the splendor and stability it deserved. From that time forward it has been a great feast of the church. It is now in many European countries a holiday of obligation and was in this country until twenty-five or thirty years ago.

The Pappal built by which this feast was declared originally sets forth the motives for which the feast was instituted. The first motive was to confound the malice of heretics, then to repair the outrages committed against our Saviour and to declare aloud the Catholic faith in the real presence.

While it is no longer a holiday of obligation, the feast is celebrated and a majority of the faithful will attend mass and receive holy communion on this great day.

PRETTY SCENE

When Children Received the First Communion at St. Louis Bertrand's.

Sunday was a great day at St. Louis Bertrand's church and the good Dominican fathers, who have presided over the destinies of the parish for forty years, have reason to feel proud of the outcome. It was the feast of Pentecost, the ending of the novena to the Holy Ghost, the first Sunday of the month devoted to the Sacred Heart, and the day on which the children of the parish were to make their first communion.

The first communicants received at 7:30 o'clock mass and the vast edifice was crowded. There was a class of thirty-nine boys and thirty-two girls, all seated in the sanctuary, the boys close to the altar and the girls ranged around outside. The boys were all neatly clad in dark clothes, while the girls wore white with veils and wreaths of green and white. White roses, green plants and the gold of the tabernacle and the golden lights adorned the altar—a typical Irish color scheme, green, white and gold. The only other color visible in the sanctuary was the blood-red roses in front of the statue of the Sacred Heart.

The parishioners had been reminded that his Holiness Pope Pius X. had granted a plenary indulgence to parents and relatives to the third degree who received holy communion at the same mass and said some prayers for his intention. As a consequence nearly all the first communicants had mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts and cousins galore to be with them on this occasion.

The Very Rev. Father Logan, O. P., celebrated the mass, with the Very Rev. Fathers Clark and Heenan as deacon and sub-deacon.

Father Logan gave a brief instruction at the gospel, more of a congratulatory address to the little ones than an exhortation to the grown people. His words sank deep and will long be remembered. The boys approached holy communion first, then followed the girls, and after them came the people, and it was an edifying sight to see. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock vespers were followed by a sermon by the Rev. Eugene V. Flood, rosary, benediction and the investing of the children with the scapulars of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Splendid Attendance and the Plans Laid for an Open Meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., met Wednesday night, Miss Mary Sheridan presiding and all the officers on hand. The attendance was large and the members appeared enthusiastic. One new member was obligated. A handsome sum was donated to the San Francisco sufferers and the money was forwarded the next day. During the evening several of the members made brief addresses and others rendered vocal and instrumental music.

The next meeting will be an open one and the ladies invite all their friends to attend. An abundance of refreshments will be served and the members have volunteered to bake cakes. During the evening the members of the Geraldine Dramatic Club will give a special entertainment.

TAKES LEAD.

Branch 25 Initiates a Movement For Holiday For Outing.

Branch 25, C. K. of A., had a very interesting meeting Monday night. Benefit certificates were received for two candidates and two certificates of honor were awarded. At the suggestion of President William T. Meehan the branch voted to declare July 26 a holiday and the members resolved to do all in their power to persuade all the other branches affiliated with the Central Committee to take a like step. This will enable all the members of the branches in the three Falls Cities to enjoy the outing at Fontaine Ferry Park, when with their wives and children there will be a grand, old-fashioned reunion.

The Employment Bureau was reported in excellent working order and several positions have been found for unemployed members. The branch donated $25 to the relief of the San Francisco sufferers. Sympathy was expressed for Major Gen. Kadeski, whose wife is seriously ill in St. Louis. Tickets were distributed to all present, making in all 450 now in the hands of Branch 25.

MACKIN'S MEMBERS

Had an Interesting Session of Their Council on Tuesday Night.

Mackin Council had another splendid meeting Tuesday night. President Ralphy knew that there was plenty of work and kept things moving rapidly. Frank F. Burke was reported on the sick list, and William Pfannmiller, who has been ill, was reported to be improving. One new member was elected and it was decided to hold another initiation on June 26. Mackin Social Club turned $126.15 into the treasury as the result of its recent dances. Louis Kieffer, Chairman of the Picnic Committee, reported everything on the boom and urged all to work in harmony for a successful outing. R. W. Galway predicted success for the affair and said that the ladies were with Mackin, another indication of high favor. A communication was read from Supreme President Fogarty, thanking the council for its generous efforts in behalf of their brethren in San Francisco.

The members were reminded that delegates to the Grand Council would be elected at the meeting next Tuesday night. During the evening President Joseph L. Lenihan and Past Presidents John J. Crotty and Harry Colgan, of Satolli Council, made their appearance and were given an ovation. Each made brief addresses on the good of the order. Robert T. Burke and John Farrell were appointed to be the principal speakers at the next meeting.

MARTIN KEPT BUSY.

Capt. Albert F. Martin, President of Trinity Council, is suffering from a multiplicity of engagements aside from his multifarious duties as law agent for the L. & N. St. Catherine's Council at New Haven has challenged Trinity's baseball team for a game to be played at New Haven on Sunday, June 17. The New Haven bowling team will come to Louisville for a final contest against Trinity on June 30, and Phil Sheridan Council, of Bellevue, wants a return bowling game. The date for this has not been fixed.

MOTHER EARTH

Now Holds All That Is Most of a Great Irish Patriot.

The Funeral of Michael Davitt Was Attended by Vast Concourse.

Recollections of His Visit to Louisville Twenty Years Ago.

WHOLE WORLD MOURNS HIS DEATH

All that is mortal of Michael Davitt now rests in a grave at the Catholic cemetery at Straid, County Mayo, Ireland. The funeral was held on Saturday, requiem mass being celebrated in Dublin, after which the body was taken to Straid on a special train. Many members of the Irish Parliamentary party were in attendance and followed the remains to the cemetery. When the train arrived at Foxford, five miles from Straid, a string of vehicles more than a mile long was at hand. Thousands of the peasantry followed the funeral procession afoot.

The old graveyard where the remains were interred is near the ruins of one of the ancient Irish abbeys. There the Davitts have been buried for centuries. The grave was dug on a green hillside, under a stately oak tree and within sight of Mr. Davitt's birthplace. When the coffin was lowered into the grave many persons threw floral wreaths in upon it. Even after the grave was filled many former friends and associates lingered long in the cemetery and the eyes of all were bedimmed with tears.

Although Michael Davitt's body is in the grave his spirit is still with us. Wherever there are liberty-loving people his name will ever be a watchword and his memory will be ever revered by sons and daughters of Ireland. Michael Davitt believed in the rights of the people. He was broad-minded and opposed tyranny wherever it appeared. Not only are the people of Ireland sorrowing over his demise, but the persecuted Jews of Russia regret his death. One of the first public meetings held after he passed away was at Kishineff, Russia, where the Jews passed resolutions of sympathy and recalled that Mr. Davitt was one of the first to send them material aid during their persecutions last fall.

The editor of the Chicago Record-Herald writes: "Michael Davitt was not only the leading champion of Irish liberties, but the leading Democrat of Great Britain, if not of Europe. His great was at all times simple. He forced issues and took the consequences. He demonstrated that courts and jails have no terrors for a determined reformer who represents what is right, and just against wrong and injustice. Every jail sentence he served helped to force concessions for the Irish peasants, whose rights he represented far more effectively at the bar of English courts and in English jails than he or any other Irishman could have represented them in the English Parliament."

Mr. Davitt visited Louisville in 1886 and spoke in the interest of the Land League. The meeting was one of the largest ever held in the city by the Irish people. Judge Matt O'Doherty introduced the distinguished patriot, who made a splendid impression on his audience. The result was that three branches of the Land League were organized in this city, but eventually the three were merged into one.

During his stay in Louisville, which was very brief, as he had many other engagements, Mr. Davitt was entertained by Judge O'Doherty, Dr. William B. Doherty, the late Thomas P. Clines, James Rogers, Thomas K. Hines, Dennis Shanahan, Timothy O'Sullivan, Jeremiah Kavanagh, Capt. Mike Mintow and others. His personal magnetism made these people his friends at once. They took up the Land League work at his suggestion and many dollars from Louisville found their way to the relief of the poor people of Ireland. Originally there were branches in St. Louis, Bertrand's parish, in the Sacred Heart parish and one in the center of the city. For many reasons the three were merged into one under the name of the Emerald Branch. At different times James Rogers and the late Thomas P. Clines were Presidents of the Emerald Branch. Meetings were held monthly, short addresses were made, young men and women recited and gave vocal and instrumental selections. The dues were fixed at ten cents a month, and all enjoyed a pleasant evening as well as contributing to a patriotic cause.

DELEGATES CHOSEN.

Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, met Tuesday night and elected delegates to the Grand Council of the Indiana jurisdiction, which will meet at Terre Haute, August 23. The rivalry was good-natured and the vote resulted in the election of James O'Hara, Matt Roth and Peter W. Fetter. Unity will also be represented in the Grand Council by Grand Treasurer Charles F. Pfeffer and Grand Director Con J. McBurron. The meeting was well attended and the best of feeling prevailed.

LOUISVILLE'S POSTMASTER.

A Kentucky Irish-American has been nominated by the President of the United States for Postmaster in this city to succeed Dr. Thomas H. Baker. The new appointee is Robert Emmet Woods, a native of Breckinridge county and a son of a native of Ireland. Mr. Woods is a representative lawyer and citizen. Dr. Baker made an excellent official, but if he had to be removed the office could not have fallen into better hands than those of Robert Emmet Woods.

ADVICE TO PARENTS.

Children who have made their first holy communion and are not obliged to work during the day ought by all means go to confession in the afternoon instead of at night. Too many do not do this. They visit the churches after dark and delay tired men and women who have been working hard all day. Besides that the priests are detained thereby in the confessionals until an unreasonable and unnecessary hour. In the majority of cases the parents and not the children are to blame. Fathers and mothers should see that their young charges go to confession in the afternoon.

GOOD WORK.

Many editors poke fun at the United States Senate, call it the "millionaires' club" and by other names more opprobrious. There are some people who agree with the disgruntled newspaper men. Deep down in our American hearts we know that it is the most august deliberative body in the world. Sometimes the Senate has to do things to show the people that it is trustworthy as well as alive. A committee of Senators has voted to expel Reed Smoot because he believed in a multiplicity of wives and practiced the Mormon religion. Another committee began to inquire into the standing of Senator J. Ralph Burton, of Kansas, recently convicted of complicity in land frauds. Burton took the hint and resigned. There must always be good in a body that tries to rid itself of festering sores. No European parliament would use drastic measures to dispose of rotten members.

ABOUT TEMPERANCE.

Archbishop Messmer, of Milwaukee, was recently invited to address the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon League at Madison. Because of his departure for Europe the Archbishop could not be present, but sent an address which was read by the Rev. Father Ward, of Beloit. His language was temperate, more so than many members of the league would have had or enjoyed, yet it was truthful and sound. Among other things Archbishop Messmer wrote: "In itself and under normal conditions the moderate enjoyment of an exhilarating liquor is no greater wrong than the enjoyment of a cooling dish of ice cream, or of a plate of citron-flavored blue points or of a glass of sweetened lemonade."

In another part of his address the Archbishop wrote: "On the principle that every man is bound by natural and divine law to avoid the danger and near occasion of sin just as he is bound to avoid the sin itself, we maintain that whenever or wherever the moderate use of liquor becomes a danger or occasion of intoxication, that man is bound, under a divine sanction, to abstain altogether."

This has always been the teaching of the Catholic Church. It is the abuse, not the use, of liquors that constitute an evil.

COMING BACK.

We're coming back to old Kentucky, For we've heard her bugle sound, Calling home her sons and daughters To the "dark and bloody ground." The soil from which Abe Lincoln sprang, Jeff Davis and a Clay, Marshall, Breckinridge and Preston, Who were giants in their day.

We're coming back to old Kentucky, Where the greenest bluegrass grows, The home of Boone and Kenton, Where the Barren and Licking flow, Whose daughters are famed for beauty, Her horses for their speed, And old Nelson county's bourbon Is the finest ever seen.

We're coming back to old Kentucky, To meet our kin once more, Where love and hospitality Is the latch-string on each door. We'll clasp a mother to our bosom, Meet a father kind and brave, Shed a tear above their ashes, Plant a rose upon their grave.

We're coming back to old Kentucky, We'll see Judge Rowan's home, Where Foster wrote his masterpiece, "My Old Kentucky Home." The song that unlocks our feelings, Causes every soul to thrill, For we all love old Kentucky And her famous bluegrass hills.

He is receiving many congratulations on winning such a charming bride.

DIED A HERO.

The funeral of John G. S. Hall took place from St. Paul's church on Thursday morning, and the church was crowded with the sorrowing friends of the dead youth. The Rev. Father Thomas A. York celebrated the mass of requiem and paid a tribute to the young man's memory. All of the children of the parochial school attended the funeral mass and accompanied the remains to their last resting place in St. Stephen's cemetery.

The young man was sixteen years old and was the son of Dr. S. Johnson Hall, of 708 East Market street. Tuesday morning the boy endeavored to dissuade William Woolfork from insulting two little girls. Woolfork was intoxicated, and without a word of warning plunged a knife into the boy's heart. The boy died within a few minutes and his murderer is under arrest.

MOURN HER DEATH.

News was received here this week of the death of Mrs. David B. Mulligan, formerly Miss Mary Zinone Hill, of this city, who passed away Wednesday at Ottawa, Canada. ADMISSION 10 CENTS

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Father Hickey, of Dayton, Ohio, is urging members of the order to support the Catholic press.

Members of Dayton, Ohio, council received holy communion in a body on the last Sunday in May.

The new home erected by St. Paul, Minn., council is now occupied. It cost $75,000 and is an elegant structure.

The fourth degree was exemplified on a class of 151 candidates at Utica, N. Y., on Thursday. The banquet that followed was attended by 350.

Many deaf mutes placed in State Institutions fall away from the Catholic faith. Lucayas Council, of New York City, has undertaken the work of reclaiming these stray sheep.

Columbus, Ohio, council will give a military euchre June 14. The funds that accrue will be given to the scholarship fund now being raised to educate five young men for the priesthood.

In Pittsburg the order is doing great work looking after the children brought before the Juvenile Court. During the past twelve months 292 Catholic children were placed in religious educational institutions.

Pennsylvania Knights in State convention decided to hold the next meeting in Philadelphia. During the past year six new councils were formed in the State, making a grand total of eighty-six councils and 13,000 members.

At the Michigan State convention it was decided to raise $5,000 annually for the education in Catholic institutions of fifty deserving young men. The money will be raised by prorating a tax on the councils according to membership.

BISHOP SPALDING'S VISIT.

The Right Rev. John Lancaster Spalding, Bishop of Peoria, is at Lebanon, where he expects to spend a month with his sister, Mrs. Kate Spalding. He has not entirely recovered from the stroke of paralysis sustained last week, but is making favorable progress toward complete health. Bishop Spalding has many old friends in Louisville and was the first pastor of St. Augustine's church in this city. This was probably the first church built for colored Catholics in the United States.

THE NEW ALBANY SICK.

Several members of Unity Council, New Albany, are seriously ill. John Bucho is confined to his home with typhoid fever. George A. Kraft is suffering from blood poisoning and John Ritz is at St. Edward's Hospital. The latter had a serious case of small-pox. The disease settled in one of his eyes and it became necessary to remove the optic to save his life. The friends of each of the sufferers hope for their speedy recovery.

TULLY'S HAMMOCKS.

John J. Tully, whose establishment is at 152 Third street, is now in his hammock season. All his goods are hand-made and last for years. Mr. Tully learned while a member of the United States Life-saving Corps that if anything had to be done it had to be done well. For this reason he is particular about details in the manufacture of his hammocks, fishing tackle, camp outfits, etc. If you want a durable hammock, tent or awning, see John J. Tully.

ACOLYTES OUTING.

The acolytes of St. John's church had an outing at Cherokee Park last Monday and the boys alternated between baseball and ice cream. Several of the Xavierian Brothers enjoyed the day with the children. During one of the ball games Joe Hund was struck over the eye in an attempt to catch a foul tip. Four stitches had to be taken to sew up the gash. He bore the operation like a soldier and is almost ready for another game.

MEMORIAM.

Miss Mollie Burke has received many expressions of sympathy on the death of her niece, Mrs. Oile Sepena. The mother of the deceased died when her child was small and for eighteen years her aunt had charge of her well being. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Dolores Kuhn and as a girl was deservedly popular. She had been ill a long time and her death was not unexpected. Requiem services over the remains were celebrated at the Cathedral.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 4 of Syracuse initiated a large class last week.

Saratoga Hibernians are making extensive preparations for the national convention next July.

There is some talk of the Geraldines giving a performance for the benefit of one of our new churches.

National Director Butler has the right idea regarding knockers. They care for nobody but themselves and never work.

The three divisions at Meriden, Conn., are taking part in the preparations for the city's centennial celebration.

Another new branch of the Ladies' Auxiliary has been organized in Providence. This now gives that city a total of two.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary in Cincinnati entertained with a supper in honor of Father Hearty, of Ireland, who is visiting in that city.

The divisions in Jeffersonville and New Albany are each holding their own. They will visit Pontaine Ferry Park in large numbers the night of the outing.

Ladies' Auxiliary 9 of Boston realized a considerable profit at their annual bon bon and May party. The proceeds went to swell the sick and funeral fund.

The Literary Committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary requests each member to bake a cake for the social session that takes place at the next meeting, Wednesday night, June 20.

Division 2 has gone to work to increase its membership. There is splendid field to work, and there is no reason why the number should not be doubled within the next few months.

Next Wednesday night there will be an important meeting of Division 4, when it is expected plans will be formulated that will put the Limerick men in the lead at the annual outing.

Members of the order will be greatly pleased to know that Frank Burke, Secretary of Division 4, will soon be out again, after an illness that confined him to his home for the past two weeks.

The action of the County Board in distributing its funds was an agreeable surprise to the divisions. Now let all work for the success of the outing and there may be another and larger dividend.

The State convention that will be held in Paris next September will be one of unusual interest, and we would suggest that the County Board arrange for a big excursion from this city at that time.

Peter Cusick, the genial financier of Division 1 and deputy under Assessor John Adams, has been kept busy receiving congratulations since the announcement of his marriage in these columns.

The time for our annual outing now draws close and it becomes the duty of every member of the order to talk Hibernian day to his friends. Do this and see how good you will feel when the returns are made.

Philadelphia divisions will hold their annual athletic and literary exercises August 25 and 26. The funds will be used to purchase prizes for parochial school children who show proficiency in Irish history.

A "poverty party" is the latest thing in Boston. Members of Ladies' Auxiliary 6 held an affair of this kind and realized quite a nice sum. Everything in the hall denoted extreme poverty and the invitations were printed on brown wrapping paper.

At Norwich, Conn., the two divisions have presented St. Patrick's church with a handsome set of stations of the cross. The gift was made as a compliment to Father Treanor, who postponed his fair last fall so as not to interfere with a bazaar given by the Hibernians.

Division 1 meets Tuesday night and President Mulloy would be pleased if all the members were present. It is understood that questions of more than ordinary importance will be acted upon, not the least being one that will add considerably to the funds in the treasury.

A meeting of Division 3 without Phil Cavanaugh and Tom Kennedy present would be like a pie without filling. Both have ideas and always express them, not caring whether or not they agree with those of other members, as they have only the best interest of the order at heart.

PONTAINE FERRY PARK.

Home comers and those already at home will find Pontaine Ferry Park an attractive resort next week. In addition to the open air concerts by Erlanger's band there will be two performances daily by Mlle. Valleria, the daring young trainer of wild beasts. These shows will be free to all visitors to the park. Martini and Max Millian are the headliners for an excellent vaudeville in the Hopkins Pavilion. All of the turns will be performed by stars and the pavilion will doubtless be crowded every afternoon and evening.

PROMOTED.

Capt. William A. Lutkemeler, a prominent member of Lambert Young Council, V. M. I., of Frankfort, has been appointed Quartermaster of the Second Regiment, Kentucky State Guard. He is a thorough soldier and his friends throughout the State are gratified over his promotion.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

Very Rev. Father Edward Holland has been elected Provincial of the Disalced Carmelite Order in Ireland.

The hazard in aid of the funds of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in the Dublin Rotunda was opened by Lady Aberdeen. Messrs. H. A. Wilson and James McGovern, of Enniskillen, and James Lowrey, of Lishallow, have been appointed Magistrates for County Fermanagh.

Before departing from Limerick Rev. Father Creagh was made the recipient of an address and presentation in testimony of the warm esteem in which he is held in that city.

Messrs. Denis Johnson and T. M. Kettle visited Knockbridge on Sunday, June 27, and after the last mass assisted the Nationalists in establishing a branch of the United Irish League.

In reply to Messrs. Nannetti and Dillon in the House of Commons Secretary Bryce said the existing system of teaching Irish in the national schools would remain in operation until June 30.

The Irish canonizations in Rome are making rapid progress under the guidance of Cardinal Vannutelli and the Congregation of Rites. For 700 years, since St. Lawrence O'Toole, there has been no Irish saint raised to the altar, at least no Irish saint in Ireland.

Almost the first act of Dr. Douglas Hyde on his return to Ireland will be the opening of the Mayo fairs. The Castlebar Board of Guardians decided unanimously to present him with an address of welcome, and also to erect name-plates in Irish above the streets.

Two County Limerick gentlemen, Justice John Ryan, of Killinure, and Thomas Dutton, of Patrickswell, were sworn in at Dublin Castle as Inspectors under the Estates Commissioners. It is expected both will be engaged in connection with the reinstatement of evicted tenants.

The first shipment of copper ore from the newly opened mines of Bonmahon, County Waterford, was to take place last week, when 300 tons of raw material were consigned to Swansea. The starting of the mines has given a great impetus to the trade of the district, and already over 100 hands are employed in the shifts.

The reappointment of the Rev. Father Staples to the Priorship of the Carmelite community at White Abbey, Kildare, was made the occasion of a complimentary demonstration by the people of that town. A deputation, headed by John Heffernan, Secretary of the Kildare County Council, and supported by Rev. Father Campion and others, waited on Father Staples and tendered him their congratulations.

A comprehensive programme was submitted for discussion at the Irish Trades Congress that assembled in Athlone on Whit-Monday and the two succeeding days. The agenda included resolutions on the Irish acts, women's compensation bill, the construction of Irish army vehicles in Ireland, night work in bakeries, eight-hour day, public boards and fair wages, technical training of apprentices, Irish private bill legislation, payment of members, labor representation, local government elections, reform of Irish education and the feeding of school children.

Upon their arrival home Fathers Dennehy and Kent, who had been collecting funds for the Queenstown Cathedral, were met by Fathers Browne and Madigan, and subsequently at the residence of the Most Rev. Robert Browne, Bishop of Cloyne, they were presented with an address from the Queenstown Urban Council. His Lordship the Bishop had them a hearty welcome home and thanked them for the manner in which they had carried out the work entrusted to them.

Their collection had exceeded all expectations, and he thanked the priests and people of America for their aid to those at home.

WHY SHOULDN'T A MAN

"Who likes music get all the pleasure and enjoyment he can, by having in his home a piano that he can play himself, so that he can have just the particular kind of music he likes best and have it whenever he wants it?"

YOU SAY: Because he hasn't the time and patience to learn to play the piano.

WE SAY: He doesn't have to learn to play the piano. Not this one—The Farrand-Cecilian Piano—for he (or anyone else) can play it, play any music desired—Classical, Operatic, Dance Music, Rag Time or Popular—and play it with expression and feeling, too, even though he knows nothing about music or piano playing. Sound strange, but it's all true nevertheless.

The Farrand-Cecilian is a high-grade upright piano with a brilliant, clear, sweet tone and with the mechanism of the metal action Cecilian Piano Player built inside the case. Price $675. Easy payments.

Trinity Council Holds Special Election On Monday Night.

President Albert F. Martin presided over the meeting of Trinity Council on Monday night, and despite the inclement weather the attendance was unusually large. William Gast and F. H. Hinkle were reported still on the sick list. The Peinic Committee reported, showing that the recent outing at Fontaine Perry Park was a success financially and socially. It was decided to hold an election next Monday night to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Henry Storr as Secretary and a vacancy in the Executive Committee. President Martin desires that every member of this council will be in attendance.

SILVER HILLS

Continue to Increase in Popularity Each Successing Day.

Passenger traffic to Silver Hills is increasing every day. The summit of the Indiana knolls is a natural park and for beauty and diversity of scenery has no superior in the country. Hundreds of our people hurry from the dust-laden city every day to get a few breaths of fresh air high up in Silver Hills. Many people have built homes on these hills and many others are seeking boarding accommodations. Several families are contemplating the erection of tents and camping there for weeks.

The ride from Louisville to the hills is delightful in itself and the trip is made in less than an hour. Nearly every day church and Sunday-school picnics are being held there and the popularity of the resort is constantly increasing. Cars leave Third and Market streets every fifteen minutes.

BROTHERS' REUNION

Remarkable Family of Nine Are Assembled in Chicago.

A remarkable family reunion was held in Chicago this week, where nine brothers, all born in Ireland, are meeting after many years of separation. The reunion began last Sunday, when the Rev. Father Horan, of Little Rock, clasped hands with his brother John Horan, a wealthy meat packer of Australia. These two met in a hotel in St. Louis. Later the two were joined by Joseph Horan, a medical student in St. Louis. These three had not seen each other in twenty years. William Henry Horan, another brother from Australia, arrived Monday and the four went to Chicago. Later in the week they were joined by Michael and Paul Horan, wealthy manufacturers and army purveyors in Ireland, and Kieran Horan, a prosperous New York architect. Daniel Horan, of New Zealand, and Thomas Horan, a miner and mine owner of Australia, are expected to arrive during the week.

Father Bernard F. Horan and his brother Joseph are graduates of the University of Dublin. The former also received his degree as Doctor of Divinity from the Propaganda in Rome. The reunion was planned for the St. Louis Fair two years ago, but the Australian brothers were unable to attend.

PASSED CENTURY MARK.

Mrs. Honorab Maloney died at Covington last week at the remarkable age of 104. She was buried in a shroud which she had purchased forty years ago. Her funeral took place from St. Mary's Cathedral, and Father McNeerney, a nephew of the deceased, celebrated the requiem mass.

C. K. of A.—A workingman who lives from hand to mouth can save but little. But he can save $1.50 a month to provide for his beloved ones in case of his death. The Catholic Knights of America will help him do this.

LEBANON CATHOLICS

Held Grand Federation Meeting and Discussed Vital Topics.

The federated Catholic societies of Lebanon met at Lebanon Sunday afternoon and took part in an interesting programme. C. S. Hill read a paper on "Family Progress in the Home." Judge J. P. Thompson had an interesting theme in "Study and Teaching of Christian Doctrine," while Judge H. W. Rives disposed of "Literature in the Home." C. C. Spalding led the discussion of the several papers.

Y. M. I. Hall, where the exercises were held, was tastefully decorated for the occasion by the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality, and Mrs. John Barr directed the musical programme, which was all that could be desired.

The commencement exercises of St. Vincent's Academy, in Union county, will be held Wednesday morning, June 20. This academy was established by the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth in 1821. The Ursuline Academy, at Shelby and Chestnut streets, this city, will hold its graduation exercises at St. Martin's Hall, Shelby and Gray streets, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Tuesday, June 12.

The annual exercises at St. Xavier's College, Second and Broadway, will be held on the evening of Wednesday, June 20. This commencement is always looked forward to with great interest. Many of our leading business and professional men are graduates of this institution.

FEAST AND FURIES.

Magnificent Spectacle to be Presented at Jockey Club Park.

"Feast and Furies" will be the grand spectacular attraction at Jockey Club Park from Monday to and including Saturday night, with matinees on all but the opening day. Press reports from other cities where this magnificent spectacle has been produced declare that it surpasses "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" for rapid changes. It is peculiarly appropriate for this spectacle to be produced during "home coming" week. The astonished spectators gaze for a moment upon green grass. In the twinkling of an eye a metropolis appears. The streets and buildings are illuminated by electricity, trolley cars are running, horses, wagons and people commingle on the streets. Men, women, children, horses and other beasts of burden are alive. It is no picture scheme. A holiday is being celebrated and a public performance is being given. There are bands of music, banners, floral decorated coaches and all that goes to make a civic parade. Suddenly an anarchist uprising takes place and the scene of joy changes to one of horror. The police are overcome by the enemies of law and order. Soldiers are called and a Gatling gun spreads ruin and death. A mighty conflagration results and the city is in flames. Eventually heroism conquers hate and law is triumphant.

GOING ABROAD.

The Rev. Father Peter Berresheim will leave for New York tomorrow and will sail for Europe on Thursday. Father Berresheim is assistant to the Very Rev. Father Obie, pastor of St. Martin's church. He will spend three months at his old home at Andernach, Germany. His many friends wish him a safe journey.
